First diagnosed with Congenital Heart Disease (hole in the heart) during her pregnancy 17 years ago, Mdm Ina has since been battling with her Atrial Septal Defect with Pulmonary Hypertension condition.

She requires long term medication and regular specialist outpatient clinic follow-ups. Left unmanaged, her condition will result in the worsening of her oxygen saturation and adversely impact her life expectancy. She is unable to work due to her condition and her husband, who is the sole breadwinner for the family of three, is unable to manage the full cost of the medical treatment.

Thanks to the support of donors of NUHS Fund, Mdm Ina is able to continue receiving vital long term care for her heart condition, bringing peace of mind to her and her family.

"During the hardest part of my life, you are my heroes."
